ENGLAND WILL FIGHT, INDICATED BY SPEECH

IN IMPASSIONED LANGUAGE SIR EDWARD GREY SAYS THIS AFTER-NOON EMPIRE HAS LOST IN EFFORT FOR PEACE

FRUSTRATED AT EACH TURN

Says England Can Not Stand by Idly and See France Subjugated and Belgium Ravished.

MOBILIZATION ORDERS MADE

Meanwhile Bloody Fighting is Already in Progress Between French and German Armies.

(By United Press.)

London, August 3.—England will fight Germany.

That was the construction placed on a remarkable speech by Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons this afternoon. In impassioned language he declared the empire had exhausted itself in an effort to obtain peace but had been frustrated. He plainly said England could not afford to stand by idly and see France subjugated and the independence of Holland and Belgium ravished.

Tonight Premier Asquith will recite the failure of the diplomacy; characterize German seizure of British shipping as acts of war and declare that England, having been appealed to by Belgium, after being invaded by Germany, must draw the sword in the defense of the latter.

The British army has been ordered mobilized. The navy is ready.

Meanwhile bloody fighting is already in progress between the German and French armies. The advantage seems to be with France as it is not only holding its own but a French army of some 75,000 men is reported moving into Germany from a point north of Belfort.

Germany is invading Russia and German troops have driven the Russian Cossacks who were raiding north-eastern Prussia back across the line. One important fortification in Russian Poland is reported held by Germany.

The first naval battle has been fought in the Baltic, according to news reaching Stockholm. Striking under cover of darkness the German squadron is reported to have driven the Russian warships in confusion into the Gulf of Finland. One large war craft, identity as yet unknown, floundered on Aland island at the head of the Gulf of Bothnia. The German fleet is said to have put a landing party on the Aland island and are holding it for the Kaiser.

The censorship is so strict that few details are permitted to become known. News agency reports said a battle had taken place between the British and German fleets in which six German and two British warships were sunk. This report was not given credence by the admiralty when it was pointed out Germany and England are not yet at war with each other.

Germany's invasion of Belgium is directly against its treaty and was a bitter disappointment to England. It proved conclusively that the Kaiser did not intend to permit any obligation to interfere with the well known plan for conquering France.

Summary of War Events

Much has transpired in the European war crisis since Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening Germany declared war on Russia. Events came in rapid succession until now, France having been placed on the defensive by Germany, England will be drawn into the struggle by its alliance with Russia and France. Germany is invading both Russia and France. Several naval encounters have been reported.

REFERS TO THE EUROPEAN WAR

Dr. H. L. Willett Departing From Set Lecture at Chautauqua, Gives Comprehensive Glance.

DEPLORED ARMED INVASION

Wonders Why Great Christian Nations Should go to War With no More at Stake.

Departing for the moment from his set lecture on "The Spirit of Youth" at the chautauqua last night, Dr. Herbert L. Willett, world traveler, minister and Chicago university professor, gave a comprehensive glance into the European war situation.

"It is significant," he said, "that now, after ten years during which time we have discussed peace more than ever before, Europe breaks out into war. Over what? Any deep-set principle? Any conviction? Yes, there are race prejudices and the lusts for blood, but no prime motive for such a conflict."

Dr. Willett said that the Christian nations of the world had the right to expect more of Christian Europe than this display of military force. He asked what the unchristianized nations of India, China, Japan would think of Christian Europe.

"The conflict is so real that one can hardly think it so," he continued. "Because armed invasion of one Christian nation by another is transpiring makes it more difficult to believe. I can not bring myself to the realization of it because of that fact. I can not but feel that there will be a sober second thought after the first hot words have passed and the terrible carnage and devastation of war will be averted."

"Of course, I realize that the Czar of Russia, the Kaiser of Germany and the other rulers of European nations want to keep in popular accord with their people. And they know no better way—indeed, there is none between—than to stir

INVASION IS CONFIRMED

Three German Corps Sent to Meet French Army of 75,000.

(By United Press.)

Berlin, August 3.—The war office this evening confirmed the report that French army has invaded the German empire near Belfort and is being opposed by the border patrol which is slowly retiring before the superior French force. The French army of invasion includes nearly 75,000 men and is accompanied by heavy artillery. Three German corps have been sent to engage the invaders.

FRENCH ARMS WIN AT PETIT CROIX

Score Victory in Short and Bloody Engagement After Being Attacked by Germans

MARTIAL LAW ON IN FRANCE

(By United Press.)

Paris, August 3.—French arms have scored victory in a short and bloody engagement of Petit Croix. A German corps attacked the French entrenched there. The defenders machine guns moved the German advance guard. The Germans charged several times but finally retreated in disorder, leaving many dead. France took many prisoners. News of the victory was received here with rejoicing.

France was today declared in a state of siege. Martial law not prevails.

HOUSE TAKES LIMIT OFF

Places Unlimited Currency at Disposal of National Banks.

(By United Press.)

Washington, August 3.—By a vote of 231 to 60 the house today passed the senate bill making available almost unlimited millions of currency for national banks. The house amended the bill by removing the limitation of $500,000,000 and authorizing the secretary to issue additional millions if the war crisis made it necessary. The senate probably will accept.

RUSSIAN CITY BURNS

(By United Press.)

Berlin, August 3.—Reports that the German cruiser Ausburg had overwhelmed a Russian cruiser of inferior rank had shelled the port of Liban, Russia and that the city was in flames were verified today.

PREMIER WIDELY CHEERED.

(By United Press.)

London, August 3.—When the cabinet reassembled tonight Premier Asquith was given a wild ovation all along the route from his residence. The crowd alternately cheered the king, the French and Russia. The temper of the people was warlike.

JURISDICTION NOT BROUGHT OUT

For This Reason Indications Are the Case Against Charles Clevenger For Theft May Fail.

STATE OVERLOOKS A BET

Testimony is Introduced and Case is Continued Until Some Law is Cited Mayor Behout.

From all indications the case against Charles Clevenger, age 18, charged with petit larceny, will fall flat because the state did not bring out the venue and jurisdiction in the trial. The case was heard this morning before Mayor Behout and was continued until the state could show the court more law on the subject.

Clevenger is alleged to have broken into the abattoir of the Weeks Fresh Meat and Provision company, southwest of the city, Saturday, and attempted to carry off two hams. As soon as the state had completed its case George W. Young, attorney for young Clevenger, moved that the case be dropped because it had not been shown that the alleged crime was committed in Rush county, Indiana.

The question was argued for some time and was then continued until more law on the question could be cited Mayor Behout. Attorney Young held that to make a case it was necessary for the state to show that the crime was committed in this county and he claimed that this was not done. Prosecutor Smith then started to introduce evidence to show this but Young objected because he had rested his case.

Several witnesses testified for the state. It was alleged that on last Saturday morning about ten-thirty o'clock the burglar alarm in the home of R. E. Martin, which is connected with the abattoir, was sounded and that Mr. Martin and his sons, Clyde, Ralph and Charles rushed down to the abattoir and found Clevenger on the outside. Since there was no one else in sight it was taken that he had entered the place.

Clyde Martin testified that he entered the abattoir and found a sack on a cattle shoot leading into the building. The sack, according to his testimony, contained two hams. All of the Martin boys testified about the same thing. Nelson Brown, colored, who has charge of the abattoir, stated that Clevenger was there early in the morning and that when he left for this city, Clevenger rode on the wagon as far as his home, which is about one-quarter of a mile from the place. The evidence against Clevenger was circumstantial and the case was based on suspicion.

WANT ONLY 1 REGISTRATION

Democratic Candidate Will Not Petition For Second.

At a meeting of the Democratic central committee and the candidates on the county ticket Saturday it was decided not to petition for a registration in September but to abide by the one registration in October. Under the law if a registration in September is desired a petition containing 300 free-holder voters must be filed eighty days before election. Unless the Republicans and Progressives demand a registration in September there will be but one registration. In order to file the petition eighty days before election it must be on file by August 18.

The Rush county chautauqua got a most auspicious start. Two greatly appreciated lectures by Dr. Herbert L. Willett, Chicago university professor, cultured orator and minister of one of Chicago's largest churches. The musical preludes, two-thirds of which were furnished by persons Rush county calls her own, made a pronounced impression on the audience.

Albert E. Wiggam, a Hoosier by birth and recognized as the leader of the eugenics movement in America, lectured this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. Because of the reputation he has, a good crowd had gathered early to hear him. Mr. Wiggam was a delegate to the eugenics congress in London a year ago.

The Schumann Quintet made its first appearance at the prelude this afternoon. This organization headed by Carl Lampert, late of Thomas orchestra, is one of the most talented before the chautauqua public today. Every member of the quintet is a capable soloist on some instrument. Mr. Lampert, it was announced from the platform yesterday, possesses the unusual talent of telling something of the composition and the composer before the number is rendered. Tonight the Schumanns will give a full concert at 7:30.

Tomorrow holds many things in store for the lovers of fun. Lulu Tyler Gates, with few peers as a reader, will appear in the afternoon at 2:45 and Strickland Gillilan, fun maker, at 8:15 at night. Wirt Lowther, the platform manager, will lecture tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. Those who heard Ralph Bingham a few years ago will be

COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER BIDS

Executive Body of Fair Directors Has Several Proposals to Light Grounds for Night Fair.

TWO ARE BY ELECTRICITY

Tent Will be at Fair for Home-comers, Strangers and Resting Ralston Reception Committee

The executive committee of the Rush county fair board late Saturday afternoon took under advisement several bids to light the fair grounds for night fair this year. Proposals to light with electricity were received from the Indianapolis & Cincinnati lighting company and the firm which makes current for lighting the town of Milroy.

The committee completed other arrangements while in session Saturday. The following reception committee was appointed for Governor Ralston, who will be here Tuesday of the fair: Will M. Sparks, chairman, Frank J. Hall, A. L. Riggs, S. L. Trabue, L. H. Havens and J. D. Megee.

The committee also appointed a large committee on reception for homecomers and strangers. There will be a large tent on the ground for this purpose. This is an innovation with the fair which is expected to win instant popularity. Tables and chairs will be provided and the tent may be used as a rest place for old folks and tired mothers. All visitors and homecomers will be registered in this tent.

The Shelbyville band which has been engaged for the fair has twenty eight pieces. With the band are one vocal and three instrumental soloists who will assist in the program. There is also a quartet accompanying the band. The organization will have their own private tent and will be ready for service at any time. The band will give at least two grand concerts during the fair in addition to playing at both the day and night fair.

This organization comes highly recommended to the fair board. It has appeared at the Winona assembly at Winona Lake and has the unqualified endorsement of that body. Persons from here who have heard the band say that it makes excellent music.

There is no doubt but that a night fair will be held. The executive committee is anxious to arrange for lighting the grounds as soon as possible. In addition to the two bids to light with electricity, the committee has a few proposals to light with a system of gasoline lights.

The Martha Poe Chapter 143, O. E. S. Will meet tomorrow night in regular session.

FOUR GREAT POWERS AT WAR

But France, Engaged in Actual Warfare, do Not Even Sever Diplomatic Relations.

IS NO DECLARATION OF WAR

Germany, in Addition to Invading France, Violates the Neutrality of Luxemburg.

London, August 3.—Four great powers of Europe, Austria-Hungary, Russia, France and Germany, are now engaged in actual warfare; but two of them, Germany and France, have not only not declared war against each other, so far as is known here, but have not even severed diplomatic relations. This is despite the fact that Germany's ultimatum to France has either been ignored or respected.

The explanation of this would appear to be that Germany and France are each seeking to throw upon the other the onus of beginning the war. In fact, while the nations of Europe are flying at each other's throats they are vying with each other in protesting their desire to maintain peace, and they repudiate the responsibility for plunging the whole continent into bloodshed.

In this curious situation, France, according to British opinion, has the strongest justification. It certainly was the last to mobilize and seems to have taken the greatest precautions to avoid frontier collisions.

On the other hand, Germany, in addition to invading French territory without making a formal declaration of war, has violated the neutrality of Luxemburg and declines to give any undertaking to respect Belgian neutrality.

The efforts of the British ambassador at Berlin to secure such an undertaking have been wasted. It is difficult to see how England can avoid being drawn into the conflict to protect Belgian and Dutch neutrality, and on this point Premier Asquith's official announcement in Parliament is awaited with anxiety, the British public being no longer under any illusions as to the gravity of the crisis, which transcends anything in their experience.

The least observant man in London today could not fail to be impressed with the fact that something tremendous was happening. Short of actual formal mobilization, the British government is taking all necessary steps to meet a situation unprecedented in the nation's history.

There was a scene of great enthusiasm outside Buckingham Palace last night. A crowd of 5,000 or 6,000 persons gathered before the palace sang the national anthem and called King George, who, with Queen Mary, appeared on a balcony and bowed in response to cheers given for him and for France.

London maintained its calm to the last moment. A great crowd assembled around the government offices at Whitehall, awaiting the decision of the Cabinet as to whether Great Britain would take part in the war, but when it was found no statement was to be made, the crowd melted away, only a few groups remaining to discuss whether the Cabinet, as or fight.

No statement of the decision reached by the Cabinet will be made tonight. Premier Asquith will announce Great Britain's position in the House of Commons tomorrow. Prior to this announcement, another Cabinet meeting will be held.

The general impression is that the war party in the Cabinet is in the ascendancy, but not a word was allowed to leak out of the cabinet chamber concerning today's proceedings. It is said that Viscount Morley, lord president of the council, and Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor, led the lease party, and that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty threatened to resign if the government did not stand by its unwritten agreement to support France against German attack.

It is known that the Lancashire Liberals are putting strong pressure on the government to keep out of the conflict at all costs, and it is said that Premier Asquith is somewhat influenced by this. But the average Englishman is saying that the government has no alternative after the neutrality of Luxemburg has been disregarded by Germany and after German's refusal to say what her attitude would be with regard to Belgium.

The Socialists held a big meeting in Trafalgar Square last night to protest against war. James Keir Hardie, independent labor and Socialist member of Parliament, who was the chief speaker, declared that Italy, although bound by treaty, remained neutral and there was no reason why Great Britain should not do likewise.

He announced his intention of calling a national strike against the war.

The railway stations are crowded with German, French and other reservists, returning to their respective countries.

The board of agriculture has issued a statement that there is sufficient wheat in the country to supply the whole population for four months, allowing for normal consumption, irrespective of imports.

REFERS TO EUROPEAN WAR

the emotions of their people with patriotic fervor. In this as no other way do the kings get allegiance from their people.

"True, Russia is half barbarous. Russia can waste a million men and she will never care. She has plenty more. And it may be her purpose to heap carnage on the other nations of Europe and then sit back on her heels and await the downfall of her neighbors from debt and famine. When Peter the Great of Russia died, he called his counselors to his side and told them never to stop until they had captured the great centers of the east and west, Pekin and Constantinople. And Russia has never swerved in her purpose from that day to this."

Dr. Willett wondered if the manufacturers of munition of war and the money lenders of Europe had so brought about a condition that made war impossible.

"There can be no war without the grasping money lenders," he said in closing. "If it be true, it is a crime against humanity."

FIRST CONFLICT IN AIR IS WAGED

When Zeppelin Dirigible Appears, French Machine Riddles it and Then Falls to Ground.

AVIATOR KILLED INSTANTLY

Brussels, August 3.—The first conflict in the air in history was waged Saturday night over the little village of Toul. At sunset the villagers were sent into a panic by the sight of a monster Zeppelin dirigible hovering above them.

It was momentarily expected that the war airship would drop bombs into the village, and excitement ran high when a French military aviator got his machine and rose to a great height above the Zeppelin and began riddling it with bullets.

The huge air craft fell to the ground and in descending the French aviator lost control of his monoplane, fell and was instantly killed.

LICENSE CASE BEFORE A JURY

Defense of Story and Clark is That They Intend to Keep Piano Store Here Permanently.

STATE HAS ANOTHER STORY

Insists That Firm Should Pay License Under Law Because it is Transient Business.

The case against Charles M. Archer, manager of the Story and Clark piano company of Indianapolis, charged with conducting a transient business here without first paying a license fee, was being heard this afternoon by a jury in Mayor Bebout's court. Three weeks ago Story and Clark opened a store in West Second street and it is alleged that they should have paid a fee to the county treasurer, since the company did not pay any taxes in the city.

The affidavit was filed by A. P. Wagoner and the case is backed by the Chamber of Commerce. A bill advertising the piano sale was introduced in evidence to show that the pianos had been brought here from other cities and offered for sale. Carl Beher, who has charge of the renting of the room, testified that he had rented the room to the piano company for one month receiving $30 in advance. He stated that the contract was verbal and that it was not stated how long the company would remain here.

The defense maintained that Story and Clark had located here permanently and had made an effort to get a room more suitable for their business. The company was in Shelbyville before coming here and the state attempted to show that the concern was in the habit of moving from one city to another and not paying any taxes. The defense stated that this was to be a permanent location for the firm and for this reason no license fee was paid.

The case was still in progress late this afternoon. The jury trying the case was as follows: J. E. Spradling, Bruce Matlock, John B. Morris, Aaron Wellman, Derby Green, John Walker, Frank Abercrombie, Ollie Brown, V. W. Norris, Fred Caldwell, Sam Young and Al Linville.

TENSENESS IS MANIFEST

Enormous Crowds Mass About English Parliament Today.

(By United Press.)

London, August 3.—Enormous crowds massed about the House of Parliament. There was extreme tenseness. There is no doubt that England will break with Germany and place the blame on the Kaiser. Premier Asquith will recite the efforts King George has made for peace and will declare that Germany's invasion of France and violation of Belgium was unjustified and will announce that there is nothing left for England but war. Great Britain declared martial law today on Malta, south of Italy and resumed control of the wireless of all vessels in British waters.

A news service says that in a naval battle between German and British squadron in the North Sea six German and two British warships were sunk. This is not confirmed. Naval officials admit that British destroyers have been scouting the North Sea and located there the German fleet Sunday night.

Hundreds of Women
nowadays are entering the professions of business world and go to work day after day in bad health, afflicted with some female ailment, dragging one foot wearily after the other, working with an eye on the clock, and wishing for closing time to come.
Women in this condition should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. It has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy. Give it a trial.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

RECEIVER FOR EBBING NAMED

Action Taken by Judge Megee in Vacation on Plea of Guardian of Ebbing's Children.

GUARDIAN IS ALSO ASKED

George Wissing was appointed receiver this morning for August Ebbing by Judge Megee in the circuit court. Application for a receiver was made last week following the taking of Ebbing to the Madison insane asylum. The suit for a receiver was filed by Michael Kney, guardian of Lizzie and Anna Ebbing, and was brought against Ollie J. Ebbing, wife of August Ebbing and the Manilla bank. It was stated in the suit that since Ebbing was in the asylum there was danger of the farm going to waste and there was need of someone looking after it. George W. Young was appointed commissioner for Ebbing to represent his interests.

Following the appointment of a receiver Kney filed suit asking that a guardian for Ebbing be appointed. The guardianship suit has not been decided.

FIRE CAUSES $300 LOSS

Blaze Starts at Bodine Home When Mrs. Bodine Strikes Match.

Fire in a wardrobe at the home of V. C. Bodine, in North Perkins street Saturday night about ten-thirty o'clock resulted in a loss of from $250 to $300. Paper hanging from a shelf caught fire from a match in the hands of Mrs. Bodine. She had gone to the wardrobe after something and struck a match. The flames ignited the paper and the fire spread. Some valuable clothing was lost, but the loss is fully covered with insurance. The fire department was called, but it was not necessary to throw water inside the house as the fire was extinguished with the chemicals. The clothing and paper burned rapidly and for a time it appeared as though the blaze might be serious.

WILL S. CARNEY EXPIRED SUNDAY

Rush County Retired Farmer Who Has Been Living Here For a Year, Dies of Senility.

FUNERAL WILL BE TUESDAY

William S. Carney, 80 years old, a well known retired farmer of this city, died Sunday morning at ten o'clock at his home in North Morgan street. Mr. Carney's death had been expected as he had been in a critical condition for some time. Death was due to senility. He had lived here over a year, having moved from his farm southwest of the city. Mr. Carney was a native of Pennsylvania, having been born there January 25, 1834.

He is survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Maury Bebout, Mrs. H. V. Logan, Mrs. Beaver and Clarence Carney. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence by the Rev. A. B. Houze of Lima, Ohio. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

Here is some more encouraging news for the taxpayers of Indiana. The Democratic state administration as a result of continued period of reckless extravagance in the conduct of the state's affairs, has given public notice of its intention to borrow $300,000 to meet the current expenses of the State government. The Democratic administration has through creating hundreds of needless offices and other operations, materially increased the state's expenses and it takes taxpayers' money to meet these bills, consequently when funds, under the existing high tax rate, do not come in fast enough, the Democratic administration must borrow money in large sums.

The state board of finance, at a meeting last Thursday in the governor's office, decided that it will be necessary to borrow $300,000 to meet the current expenses of the benevolent institutions and fixed August 5 as the time for receiving bids from banks.

Notices of the state's intention to borrow money once more were sent to all banks, trust companies and brokers in Indianapolis and to several banks of Chicago and New York. It was only thirty days ago that the state paid $670,000, representing temporary loans from Indianapolis and Chicago banks.

Most of the money borrowed August 5 will be used to meet the July expenses of the state institutions.

It is predicted that the Democratic administration will be forced to make other large loans during the coming months.

The conundrum exists about as follows: If the state needs to borrow $300,000 thirty days after the close of the June settlements, and if the state takes approximately $375,000 each month to run it, what will the temporary loans total by December?

ILLINOIS HONORS GEN. JOHN LOGAN

Handsome Stone Shaft Erected at
His Birth Place and Memorial
Association Formed

PROMINENT MEN ARE PRESENT

(By United Press.)

Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 3.—General John A. Logan, next to General U. S. Grant, the most illustrious war son Illinois ever produced, was honored here today with the erection of a handsome stone shaft at his birthplace and the formation of a memorial association to secure state and federal appropriations for erecting a monument and a memorial hall on the same spot at a later date. General James Black, of Chicago, a war comrade of General Logan, was made president of the Memorial Association, and men of national prominence from all sections of the United States sent in their names to be enrolled as subscribers and members.

Addresses were delivered today by United States Senators Hamilton Lewis and L. Y. Sherman, Governor Dunne of Illinois, former Speaker in Congress Joseph G. Cannon of Danville, Ill. Brief remarks were made by Mrs. Mary Logan, widow of the famous civil war general, of Washington, D. C. Several New York artists have offered to design the monument. The memorial hall will be made the receptacle of records, uniforms and other war relics.

DON'T BE MISLED

Rushville Citizens Should Read and Heed This Advice.

Kidney trouble is dangerous and often fatal.

Don't experiment with something new and untried.

Use a tested kidney remedy. Begin with Doan's Kidney Pills. Used in kidney troubles 50 years. Recommended here and everywhere.

A Rushville citizen's statement forms convincing proof. It's local testimony—it can be investigated.

John Singer, 201 S. Pearl street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I suffered from backache, especially at night and when I got up in the morning I was lame. I tired easily and headaches and dizzy spells bothered me. The kidney secretions contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills greatly benefited me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Singer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GOODRICH HAS REPLY FOR TOM T.

Republican National Committeeman
Answers Interview of French
Lick Statesman

GIVEN OUT IN WASHINGTON

Shows up Purpose of Tom Taggart
to Spread News That Progressive Party Will be Second

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—On his return to Indianapolis today James P. Goodrich, Indiana member of the Republican national committee, issued a statement in reply to an interview given out recently at Washington by Thomas Taggart, Indiana Democratic national committeeman in which he declared that the Progressive movement in Indiana is growing. Mr. Goodrich's statement follows:

Mr. Taggart, member of the Democratic National Committee from Indiana, on Tuesday of this week gave out an interview in Washington in which he stated that the "Progressive party is steadily growing in strength in Indiana and the candidates of that party, and not the Republicans, will run second in the coming election."

The fact that the Democratic national committeeman from Indiana made that statement is the surest evidence that it is not true and that Mr. Taggart is, with his usual astuteness, only trying to throw dust in the eyes of the voters who desire above all things to accomplish the defeat of the Democratic party in state and nation.

The return of Republicans who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago has been steadily increasing as they are brought to a realization of the real situation. Thousands of them came back in the municipal elections last fall. Every state and municipal election, every primary wherever held, and every registration has been but the story of the increasing purpose of Republicans to again unite under the banner of the Republican party.

The action of the Republican national committee in changing the rules and basis of representation to meet the objection of the Progressives helped this movement. The reorganization of the state committee and the selection of Mr. Hays as chairman was another element in its favor and the platform adopted by the Republican State convention and the splendid candidates nominated encouraged the return of Republicans to the active support of the party. This has been confined to no county or any particular section of the state, but has been state wide and not a single convention, or party conference, has been held anywhere that has not been attended by large numbers of those who supported the Progressive party two years ago.

The progressive party organ, The Indianapolis Star, does not claim any accessions from the Republican party, other than those who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago. It does claim that many former Democrats, who are dissatisfied with the present tariff law, the multiplication of offices, and the increase of taxes, will vote the Progressive ticket. We know many thousands of Democrats and Republicans who voted for Wilson will vote the Republican ticket this year and no one knows this better than Tom Taggart himself. No one knows better than he that the real, the dangerous opponent of his party in Indiana is the Republican, not the Progressive party. What better service can he render his party than to attempt to strengthen the Progressive party which he knows is not his real opponent? Every vote for the Progressive ticket is at least one-half vote nearer victory for the Democrats.

As we study the history of American politics we find the sure and unflinching indication of the decadence of a political organization is praise from the party in power—or from the chief opponent of that party. It was so with the Green-back party; it was true of the Populist party; of the Gold Democratic party and now that the Progressive party has served its purpose and is fast going its way history is again repeating itself and one of the chief boosters of the Progressive party is found in the genial boss of the Democratic party—Mr. Taggart of French Lick.

That the Democratic organization has sent word to faithful Democrats all over the state to attend Bull Moose meetings cannot be doubted, and one has but to attend any Public meeting of progressives to convince himself of this fact.

Their close co-operation in the last city election in Indianapolis indicates a thorough understanding and the joint indictment by a Democratic court of many Bull Moose and Democratic election officers for falsifying election returns in favor of the Joe Bell machine indicates that they will stop at nothing to carry out this understanding and encompass the defeat of the Republican party.

The rank and file of those who voted the Progressive ticket are honest, sincere men, who desire above all things the restoration of a protective tariff, an end to the riot of extravagance and high taxes and the defeat of the Democratic party.

Our appeal in this campaign is to them and we urge them to beware of the "Greeks bearing gifts." Read carefully the signs of the times spread all over our state and nation indicating the rising tide of Republicanism, and give heed to the Patriotic appeal of more than one hundred representative men from all over the state who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago and met at the Severin Hotel Thursday for the purpose of perfecting plans to insure the election of the Republican ticket, rather than to the sage of French Lick and Boss of the Democratic Party."

CONFINE FLAMES TO THE KITCHEN

Neighbors Come to Rescue of Mrs.
Clarence Carney When Fire
Breaks Out Sunday Night.

BURNED ON HANDS AND FACE

While her husband was away last night, Mrs. Clarence Carney, living southeast of the city, was burned about the hands and slightly on the face when fire started from a gasoline stove in the kitchen burned the kitchen down, but was kept from spreading into the other part of the house. Mr. Carney was in Rushville because of the illness of his father, who died Sunday.

Mrs. Carney was alone with her little daughter when the kitchen caught fire. She immediately telephoned the home of Kenneth Kelso, a neighbor, and then tried to extinguish the flames herself. She was burned while trying to stop the spread of the fire. Mr. Kelso was not at home, but his son responded and soon other neighbors came to Mrs. Carney's aid. Through their efforts the fire was confined to the kitchen. The loss was small and is covered by insurance. The fire was discovered about eight-thirty o'clock.

BASE ON BALLS PROVED FATAL

Pass to Maxwell in Sixth Inning Was Turning Point and Arcadians Lose 4 to 0.

GAME WAS PITCHERS' BATTLE

Rushville Played Great Ball But Work of Al Werner Was Too Much—Heller Was Unsteady.

(By Doc Miner.)

An error in judgment on the part of Jimmy Barton, captain of the Rushville team, who ordered Heller to walk Maxwell in the sixth inning, proved the turning point of one of the best ball games ever played on the Connersville field, the first two runs of the total of four for Connersville were scored. The Arcadians dropped the game 4 to 0, the fans a little money, but the team is not downhearted, and neither are the fans.

The game was a thriller from start to finish. Both teams played air tight ball and the break did not come until the sixth inning. This was the fatal inning for the Arcadians. After traveling six innings at top speed it seemed a shame that the fatal base on balls should have been issued but it was baseball and the break came just right for Connersville.

With two men out in the last of the sixth and with Ruchstuhl on third, Cap. Barton ordered Heller to walk Maxwell. Heller followed instructions to the letter. Maxwell stole second and then Heismann lifted a fly to left field and both men scored. Charles Todd in left field must shoulder some of the blame for the defeat. It was either a case of taking a desperate chance day or let it fall safe. Todd, from all appearances did not make a very hard effort to capture the ball. Heismann was caught at second but the damage was done.

This is not said in an effort to detract from the playing of Todd but it was a case of lose or win and a desperate chance on catching that hit would surely have been in order. From events that followed it seems that Barton made a mistake in ordering Maxwell walked for the next time up he struck out. But Barton thought he was playing it for the best and as Maxwell is the heavy hitter of the Connersville team it looked like good baseball.

For six innings the game was as good a one as anyone would wish to see. Both teams fought for every inch of ground and it was a pitcher's battle between Heller and Al Werner. Werner finally got a shade the better of the argument. The game was closer that the score indicates and Connersville was battled to a stand still. Heller was a little unsteady at times while Werner seemed to get better the farther he went.

The heavy hitting end of the Rushville batting order could do nothing with Werner and went hitless. The hits were easily counted. Bob Goodfellow got two of the three hits and Barton the other. For Connersville Heismann got two and Werner two. Two of the four hits came in the last time Connersville was at bat. For six innings it was one, two three. Rushville got a man as far as third in the fourth and it looked as though the team would break into the run column any time. The Arcadians infield played great ball and in the last of the fourth a sensational double play brought the fans to their feet and stopped the rush of the Connersville team. Quisser drew a pass and Maxwell hit ta Hasselback. Quisser was on second before Hasselback could recover the ball but he caught Maxwell at first. Quisser went on to third and was caught in the other half of a lightning double play.

Werner had it on the Arcadians wrecking crew and his work was by far the best that the Arcadians have been up against. Badel, Long and Sandman the sluggers for the Rushville crew could do nothing with Werner and the Connersville team played ball all the way. Connersville's other two runs came in the eighth. Werner led off with a hit and took second on Runyan's sacrifice. Ruchstuhl was safe on Todd's error and Werner scored. Heismann singled to right field and Ruchstuhl scored. Kiefel ended the fireworks by flying out to Todd.

The game was a battle and even if Rushville did lose it was no disgrace as the Arcadians made Connersville fight until the finish. The teams play here in two weeks and the worm may turn. Newcastle is next.

The Newcastle Hoosiers will be the attraction here next Sunday and Manager Davidson's crew believes they will take the Newcastle team into camp. In the past two years Rushville has won but one game from Newcastle and the fans are anxious for a win.

The game at Connersville yesterday showed that the team can play ball and up until the sixth had an equal chance with Connersville. The break is always to come and the fans while naturally disappointed are looking forward to a second meeting of the two teams.

A crowd of 200 fans from this city made the trip with the team, and were in evidence all the time. The bugs sure went crazy over the fast double play Hasselback, Badel and Long pulled off. It was a nifty piece of work.

The two teams are about equally matched and the game was sure a nice one to watch. The fans surely have no kick on that kind of ball, and they should play to a large crowd here in two weeks.

Quisser, formerly of the old Arcadians team, made the only error charged to Connersville. Quisser heaved the ball over the first base.

With this game out of the way the cry is take Newcastle.

ASSEMBLY START VERY AUSPICIOUS

anxious for another entertainment like it. Gillilan can furnish it.

The prelude numbers Sunday were immensely popular with the two large audiences. Especially were Miss Leona Thomas, violinist, of Arlington and Ross Fargo, former Rushville boy accorded a resounding ovation. Even before these artists had presented their numbers, they were applauded liberally. Mr. Fargo sang two favorites, "A Perfect Day," and "I Hear You Calling Me," in the afternoon. Mr. Fargo's appearance each time won him merited applause. Merle Maupin was accompanist for him, with the exception of his last number at night, for which he played his own accompaniment.

Miss Thomas, although a mere slip of a girl of fifteen years, performed far beyond the expectations of her most ardent admirers who see for her a great future as an artistic violinist. She won for herself more insistent applause at night because then she seemed to put more of herself into her work. Every person in the audience was proud of their own Miss Thomas, who really made her debut. Miss Thomas's sister played her accompaniments.

Miss Helen Axe Brown of Valparaiso shared the admiration of the audience with Miss Thomas and Mr. Fargo. In the afternoon she sang "My Redeemer and My Lord," "Ave Marie" and "That Sweet Story of Old" with much feeling and expression. Whether she was so much better or whether the audience was more appreciative at night, it is nevertheless the fact that she more was heartily applauded in the evening. She sang several carefully selected songs, some of which offered ability as a dramatic soprano. her ample opportunity to display her

It may have been because it was a popular lecture but at night Dr. Willett held the people who crowded the Coliseum spellbound throughout an hour and a half with the lecture, "The Spirit of Youth." He declared that every child had the right to be born. He lamented the fact that there were too many childless homes. In fact, he said it could not be called home without children.

Furthermore, Dr. Willett continued, every child has the right to be well born. You can not always depend on ancestry, he said, but I will venture to say that the child with four or five stout, honest generations back of it has the advantage of the child with vicious ancestry. In the third place, the lecturer contended every child has the right to be an environment which gives to him the chance of growing strong mentally. The child also has the right to a body worthy of the name of physical strength, he said. We have read much, Dr. Willett recalled, of our ancestors who lived to such old age, but the man of fifty today has seen more of life than Methusalem did in his quiet life of 900 years here on earth.

"We are interested in the cleanliness of the child today," continued Dr. Willett. "No boy wants to wash it's true. He is willing to compromise with civilization by washing his hands because he believes his face will go another day. We oftentimes see the marks of civilization up around the neck some place. But we are beginning to realize that the child should be kept clean."

He said the spirit of youth is the spirit of adventure and imagination. Of course, he added, the child does not lie because it does not mean to. We grow up, he said, and lose our birthright, because the child lives in a dream world that exists only for the child. Dr. Willett advised parents that the best way to correct children who are prone to exaggerate is by illustration. Show them by appealing stories the wrong of falsehood.

"There are many things American boys and girls might learn," Dr. Willett said. "One of these is reverence. The youths of today are not lop-sided with reverence. I am reminded of the foreigner who once said, after visiting America, that the time would soon arrive when American parents would be sent to bed for answering back. I wonder just how true that is. But it is not so much that our children are irreverent, but we have not taken the time to teach them some of the nobilities of life."

And in it the child should learn Dr. Willett said the right ordered child wants all the school can give. thoroughness, because that is the demand of the age, he said. The spirit of youth needs mastery of the subject at hand, he said, and the spirit of youth has to learn this.

Although this is an age of facts, fearlessness and conveniences, first and foremost, it is an age of youth, the speaker said. "We used to think," he added, "that they should be kept out of hearing until they had reached an age of discretion, if they ever did, but now we are building out lives around the child. We are putting the child under the microscope like any other bug."

In closing Dr. Willett pleaded for a fair chance for the child. He urged on every parent that he open the mysteries of life and death to his boy early in life before lips not as clean as his had told it. The same applies to the girl, he said.

In the afternoon Dr. Willett, speaking on "The Man of Nazareth," said that God spoke to His people in terms of flesh and blood. He has always spoken through men and women, Dr. Willett said, and he cited Moses, Samuel, Amos, Isaiah, Elijah and Jeremiah as examples. God has been speaking to humanity through all history, the speaker declared, but still the world waited until the days when the Man of Nazareth came. Paul affirms that He came in the fullness of time, and Dr. Willett said Paul meant the nick of time, later than which it would have been too late and earlier than which it would have been too early. All things were set on the world's stage, he said.

HURTY HAS PLAN FOR PREVENTION

Would Have Law Passed Establishing An "All Time" Health Officer in Every County

TO APPLY GOSPEL OF HYGIENE

He Would be on Job all Time and Would Look After Sanitary Conditions in County

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner, today gave the United Press his plan for the prevention of disease in Indiana. He advocated the passage of a law establishing an "all time," competent, health officers of every county, to be properly employed and properly paid, whose duties should include the visiting of schools, the homes, the courts and the jails, the slums and the poor houses practically applying the gospel of hygiene. Dr. Hurty said he would advocate a bill embodying this before the next legislature. He wrote the following for the United Press.

BY DR. J. N. HURTY.
(State Health Commissioner)

Preventable diseases are obviously a disgrace. Their presence mean violation of nature's laws of health. Man was not made to mourn, but he certainly does mourn and suffer from his own asininity, and rightly too. People are getting exactly what is coming to them when they are sick. They fully deserve every bit of sickness they have. The man who soaks up liquor and has delirium tremens is reaping what he sowed. The young man who visits the scarlet woman and rots with disease reaps what he has sown. The community which refuses to take care of all its sewage all of the time in a sanitary way, and in consequence has an epidemic of typhoid, reaps what it has sown.

Nature is pitiless, her laws are inexorable. Plague and disaster are of our own making.

Hygiene can prevent all plagues. She knows how to prevent consumption, pneumonia and influenza. She knows how to ward off diphtheria, typhoid, and scarlet fever. She knows how to stop the onward march of crime, insanity and idioey. She knows how to secure "joemnd health" with its many blessings. And when the business man, who runs things, see the good business of employing hygiene to better business.

Hygiene is a patient and willing ox that must beyoked to the task of producing more health, and this is the way to do it.

Let a law be passed establishing an "all time" competent health officer in every county. Let him be paid. Then let every one co-operate with him in securing the many blessings of health. He would visit the schools, the homes of the people, the courts and the jails, the slums and the poor houses, everywhere preaching and practically applying the gospel of hygiene.

He would be all the time on the job and finally would secure every where pure clean food, pure clean air, pure clean water, sanitary streets and alleys, sanitary markets sanitary disposal and sewage, simpler living, avoidance of alcohol, avoidance of drugs and medicine, avoidance of all excesses, playgrounds for the children, public baths, wholesome public amusements under wholesome surroundings. In a word, with competent sanitarian to lead, to be the hygienic pivot of every county, we gradually would put away all present irrational methods of living, and reap abundant health, which is the only wealth.

SIXTY ENROLLED AT INSTITUTE

Annual Meeting of Rush County Teachers Opens With Good Attendance This Morning.

THREE LECTURES ARE HEARD

Dr. Arnold B. Hall of University of Wisconsin Discusses Development of Social Sciences.

At the close of the first session of the Rush county teachers' institute in the court house assembly room at noon today, sixty teachers were enrolled. A much larger enrollment is expected by tomorrow. Three lectures were delivered this morning, one by Dr. Wirt Lowther of Columbus and two by Dr. Arnold B. Hall, professor of history in the University of Wisconsin. They will be the regular lecturers each morning this week. The institute will continue until Friday.

Dr. Hall discussed the development of the social sciences this morning. He said the prime purpose of the school was to develop children for citizenship. He declared it was difficult for the teacher because of their inability to educate the children as they come. Dr. Hall said that the problem of citizenship was largely pedagogical. He declared the things that determine the real life are heredity, formal education and environment.

Dr. Hall's second lecture was really a continuation of the first. He advised the teachers to direct the activity of the child rather than attempt to suppress it. Dr. Hall was advertised to lecture on history, but he did not devote much time to that subject this morning. He declared the real purpose of teaching history is to enable the pupil to react to certain phenomena. He urged that teachers have pupils see things as they really are and do away with false ideals.

Dr. Lowther said that literature should be intellectual, ethical and aesthetic. He declared it to be the duty of the teacher to inspire the pupil to read the best literature. He said the opportunity lies with the teacher to direct the reading of the pupils by giving them the best books.

Miss Freda C. Flint of this city is acting as secretary of the institute. County Superintendent C. M. George presides. D. O. Alter of Richland led the devotional exercises this morning and A. M. Taylor, clerk of the circuit court, led the music.

The Busy Bees defeated the Jersey City Stars yesterday 18 to 15. The game was tied in the ninth and with two men on bases Dye broke up the game with a home run. The battery for the Busy Bee was Wallace and Goodwin and for the Jersey City team, Stark and Pearsey.

ENGLAND WILL FIGHT, INDICATED BY SPEECH

IN IMPASSIONED LANGUAGE SIR EDWARD GREY SAYS THIS AFTER-NOON EMPIRE HAS LOST IN EFFORT FOR PEACE

FRUSTRATED AT EACH TURN

Says England Can Not Stand by Idly and See France Subjugated and Belgium Ravished.

MOBILIZATION ORDERS MADE

Meanwhile Bloody Fighting is Already in Progress Between French and German Armies.

(By United Press.)

London, August 3.—England will fight Germany.

That was the construction placed on a remarkable speech by Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons this afternoon. In impassioned language he declared the empire had exhausted itself in an effort to obtain peace but had been frustrated. He plainly said England could not afford to stand by idly and see France subjugated and the independence of Holland and Belgium ravished.

Tonight Premier Asquith will recite the failure of the diplomacy: characterize German seizure of British shipping as acts of war and declare that England, having been appealed to by Belgium, after being invaded by Germany, must draw the sword in the defense of the latter.

The British army has been ordered mobilized. The navy is ready.

Meanwhile bloody fighting is already in progress between the German and French armies. The advantage seems to be with France as it is not only holding its own but a French army of some 75,000 men is reported moving into Germany from a point north of Belfort.

Germany is invading Russia and German troops have driven the Russian Cossacks who were raiding north-eastern Prussia back across the line. One important fortification in Russian Poland is reported held by Germany.

The first naval battle has been fought in the Baltic, according to news reaching Stockholm. Striking under cover of darkness the German squadron is reported to have driven the Russian warships in confusion into the Gulf of Finland. One large war craft, identity as yet unknown, floundered on Aland island at the head of the Gulf of Bothnia. The German fleet is said to have put a landing party on the Aland island and are holding it for the Kaiser.

The censorship is so strict that few details are permitted to become known. News agency reports said a battle had taken place between the British and German fleets in which six German and two British warships were sunk. This report was not given credence by the admiralty when it was pointed out Germany and England are not yet at war with each other.

Germany's invasion of Belgium is directly against its treaty and was a bitter disappointment to England. It proved conclusively that the Kaiser did not intend to permit any obligation to interfere with the well known plan for conquering France.

Summary of War Events

Much has transpired in the European war crisis since Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening Germany declared war on Russia. Events came in rapid succession until now, France having been placed on the defensive by Germany, England will be drawn into the struggle by its alliance with Russia and France. Germany is invading both Russia and France. Several naval encounters have been reported.

REFERS TO THE EUROPEAN WAR

Dr. H. L. Willett Departing From Set Lecture at Chautauqua. Gives Comprehensive Glance.

DEPLORED ARMED INVASION

Wonders Why Great Christian Nations Should go to War With no More at Stake.

Departing for the moment from his set lecture on "The Spirit of Youth" at the chautauqua last night, Dr. Herbert L. Willett, world traveler, minister and Chicago university professor, gave a comprehensive glance into the European war situation.

"It is significant," he said, "that now, after ten years during which time we have discussed peace more than ever before, Europe breaks out into war. Over what? Any deep-set principle? Any conviction? Yes, there are race prejudices and the lusts for blood, but no prime motive for such a conflict."

Dr. Willett said that the Christian nations of the world had the right to expect more of Christian Europe than this display of military force. He asked what the unchristianized nations of India, China, Japan would think of Christian Europe.

"The conflict is so real that one can hardly think it so," he continued. "Because armed invasion of one Christian nation by another is transpiring makes it more difficult to believe. I can not bring myself to the realization of it because of that fact. I can not but feel that there will be a sober second thought after the first hot words have passed and the terrible carnage and devastation of war will be averted."

"Of course, I realize that the Czar of Russia, the Kaiser of Germany and the other rulers of European nations want to keep in popular accord with their people. And they know no better way—indeed, there is none between—than to stir

Three German Corps Sent to Meet French Army of 75,000.

(By United Press.)

Berlin, August 3.—The war office this evening confirmed the report that French army has invaded the German empire near Belfort and is being opposed by the border patrol which is slowly retiring before the superior French force. The French army of invasion includes nearly 75,000 men and is accompanied by heavy artillery. Three German corps have been sent to engage the invaders.

Score Victory in Short and Bloody Engagement After Being Attacked by Germans

MARTIAL LAW ON IN FRANCE

(By United Press.)

Paris, August 3.—French news have scored victory in a short and bloody engagement of Petit Croix. A German corps attacked the French entrenched there. The defenders machine guns moved the German advance guard. The Germans charged several times but finally retreated in disorder, leaving many dead. France took many prisoners. News of the victory was received here with rejoicing.

France was today declared in a state of siege. Martial law not prevails.

HOUSE TAKES LIMIT OFF

Places Unlimited Currency at Disposal of National Banks.

(By United Press.)

Washington, August 3.—By a vote of 231 to 60 the house today passed the senate bill making available almost unlimited millions of currency for national banks. The house amended the bill by removing the limitation of $500,000,000 and authorizing the secretary to issue additional millions if the war crisis made it necessary. The senate probably will accept.

London, August 3.—When the cabinet reassembled tonight Premier Asquith was given a wild ovation all along the route from his residence. The crowd alternately cheered the king, the French and Russia. The temper of the people was warlike.

JURISDICTION NOT BROUGHT OUT

For This Reason Indications Are the Case Against Charles Clevenger For Theft May Fail.

STATE OVERLOOKS A BET

Testimony is Introduced and Case is Continued Until Some Law is Cited Mayor Behout.

From all indications the case against Charles Clevenger, age 18, charged with petit larceny, will fall flat because the state did not bring out the venue and jurisdiction in the trial. The case was heard this morning before Mayor Behout and was continued until the state could show the court more law on the subject.

Clevenger is alleged to have broken into the abattoir of the Weeks Fresh Meat and Provision company, southwest of the city, Saturday, and attempted to carry off two hams. As soon as the state had completed its case George W. Young, attorney for young Clevenger, moved that the case be dropped because it had not been shown that the alleged crime was committed in Rush county, Indiana.

The question was argued for some time and was then continued until more law on the question could be cited Mayor Behout. Attorney Young held that to make a case it was necessary for the state to show that the crime was committed in this county and he claimed that this was not done. Prosecutor Smith then started to introduce evidence to show this but Young objected because he had rested his case.

Several witnesses testified for the state. It was alleged that on last Saturday morning about ten-thirty o'clock the burglar alarm in the home of R. E. Martin, which is connected with the abattoir, was sounded and that Mr. Martin and his sons, Clyde, Ralph and Charles rushed down to the abattoir and found Clevenger on the outside. Since there was no one else in sight it was taken that he had entered the place.

Clyde Martin testified that he entered the abattoir and found a sack on a cattle shoot leading into the building. The sack, according to his testimony, contained two hams. All of the Martin boys testified about the same thing. Nelson Brown, colored, who has charge of the abattoir, stated that Clevenger was there early in the morning and that when he left for this city, Clevenger rode on the wagon as far as his home, which is about one-quarter of a mile from the place. The evidence against Clevenger was circumstantial and the case was based on suspicion.

WANT ONLY 1 REGISTRATION

Democratic Candidate Will Not Petition For Second.

At a meeting of the Democratic central committee and the candidates on the county ticket Saturday it was decided not to petition for a registration in September but to abide by the one registration in October. Under the law if a registration in September is desired a petition containing 300 free-holder voters must be filed eighty days before election. Unless the Republicans and Progressives demand a registration in September there will be but one registration. In order to file the petition eighty days before election it must be on file by August 18.

The Rush county chautauqua got a most auspicious start. Two greatly appreciated lectures by Dr. Herbert L. Willett, Chicago university professor, cultured orator and minister of one of Chicago's largest churches. The musical preludes, two-thirds of which were furnished by persons Rush county calls her own, made a pronounced impression on the audience.

Albert E. Wiggam, a Hoosier by birth and recognized as the leader of the eugenics movement in America, lectured this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. Because of the reputation he has, a good crowd had gathered early to hear him. Mr. Wiggam was a delegate to the eugenics congress in London a year ago.

The Schumann Quintet made its first appearance at the prelude this afternoon. This organization headed by Carl Lampert, late of Thomas orchestra, is one of the most talented before the chautauqua public today. Every member of the quintet is a capable soloist on some instrument. Mr. Lampert, it was announced from the platform yesterday, possesses the unusual talent of telling something of the composition and the composer before the number is rendered. Tonight the Schumanns will give a full concert at 7:30.

Tomorrow holds many things in store for the lovers of fun. Lulu Tyler Gates, with few peers as a reader, will appear in the afternoon at 2:45 and Strickland Gillilan, fun maker, at 8:15 at night. Wirt Lowther, the platform manager, will lecture tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. Those who heard Ralph Bingham a few years ago will be

COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER BIDS

Executive Body of Fair Directors Has Several Proposals to Light Grounds for Night Fair.

TWO ARE BY ELECTRICITY

Tent Will be at Fair for Home-comers, Strangers and Resting Ralston Reception Committee

The executive committee of the Rush county fair board late Saturday afternoon took under advisement several bids to light the fair grounds for night fair this year. Proposals to light with electricity were received from the Indianapolis & Cincinnati lighting company and the firm which makes current for lighting the town of Midway.

The committee completed other arrangements while in session Saturday. The following reception committee was appointed for Governor Ralston, who will be here Tuesday of the fair: Will M. Sparks, chairman, Frank J. Hall, A. L. Riggs, S. L. Tralene, L. H. Havens and J. D. Megee.

The committee also appointed a large committee on reception for home-comers and strangers. There will be a large tent on the ground for this purpose. This is an innovation with the fair which is expected to win instant popularity. Tables and chairs will be provided and the tent may be used as a rest place for old folks and tired mothers. All visitors and home-comers will be registered in this tent.

The Shelbyville band which has been engaged for the fair has twenty eight pieces. With the band are one vocal and three instrumental soloists who will assist in the program. There is also a quartet accompanying the band. The organization will have their own private tent and will be ready for service at any time. The band will give at least two grand concerts during the fair in addition to playing at both the day and night fair.

This organization comes highly recommended to the fair board. It has appeared at the Winona assembly at Winona Lake and has the unqualified endorsement of that body. Persons from here who have heard the band say that it makes excellent music.

There is no doubt but that a night fair will be held. The executive committee is anxious to arrange for lighting the grounds as soon as possible. In addition to the two bids to light with electricity, the committee has a few proposals to light with a system of gasoline lights.

The Martha Poe Chapter 143, O. E. S. Will meet tomorrow night in regular session.

RECEIVER FOR EBBING NAMED

Action Taken by Judge Megee in Vacation on Plea of Guardian of Ebbing's Children.

GUARDIAN IS ALSO ASKED

George Wissing was appointed receiver this morning for August Ebbing by Judge Megee in the circuit court. Application for a receiver was made last week following the taking of Ebbing to the Madison insane asylum. The suit for a receiver was filed by Michael Kney, guardian of Lizzie and Anna Ebbing, and was brought against Ollie J. Ebbing, wife of August Ebbing and the Manila bank. It was stated in the suit that since Ebbing was in the asylum there was danger of the farm going to waste and there was need of someone looking after it. George W. Young was appointed commissioner for Ebbing to represent his interests.

Following the appointment of a receiver Kney filed suit asking that a guardian for Ebbing be appointed. The guardianship suit has not been decided.

FIRE CAUSES $300 LOSS

Blaze Starts at Bodine Home When Mrs. Bodine Strikes Match.

Fire in a wardrobe at the home of V. C. Bodine, in North Perkins street Saturday night about ten-thirty o'clock resulted in a loss of from $250 to $300. Paper hanging from a shelf caught fire from a match in the hands of Mrs. Bodine. She had gone to the wardrobe after something and struck a match. The flames ignited the paper and the fire spread. Some valuable clothing was lost, but the loss is fully covered with insurance. The fire department was called, but it was not necessary to throw water inside the house as the fire was extinguished with the chemicals. The clothing and paper burned rapidly and for a time it appeared as though the blaze might be serious.

Good News For Taxpayers.

Here is some more encouraging news for the taxpayers of Indiana. The Democratic state administration as a result of continued period of reckless extravagance in the conduct of the state's affairs, has given public notice of its intention to borrow $300,000 to meet the current expenses of the State government. The Democratic administration has through creating hundreds of needless offices and other operations, materially increased the state's expenses and it takes taxpayers' money to meet these bills, consequently when funds, under the existing high tax rate, do not come in fast enough, the Democratic administration must borrow money in large sums.

The state board of finance, at a meeting last Thursday in the governor's office, decided that it will be necessary to borrow $300,000 to meet the current expenses of the benevolent institutions and fixed August 5 as the time for receiving bids from banks.

Notices of the state's intention to borrow money once more were sent to all banks, trust companies and brokers in Indianapolis and to several banks of Chicago and New York. It was only thirty days ago that the state paid $670,000, representing temporary loans from Indianapolis and Chicago banks.

Most of the money borrowed August 5 will be used to meet the July expenses of the state institutions.

It is predicted that the Democratic administration will be forced to make other large loans during the coming months.

The conundrum exists about as follows: If the state needs to borrow $300,000 thirty days after the close of the June settlements, and if the state takes approximately $375,000 each month to run it, what will the temporary loans total by December?

ILLINOIS HONORS GEN. JOHN LOGAN

Handsome Stone Shaft Erected at

His Birth Place and Memorial

Association Formed

PROMINENT MEN ARE PRESENT

(By United Press.)

Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 3.—General John A. Logan, next to General U. S. Grant, the most illustrious war son Illinois ever produced, was honored here today with the erection of a handsome stone shaft at his birthplace and the formation of a memorial association to secure state and federal appropriations for erecting a monument and a memorial hall on the same spot at a later date. General James Black, of Chicago, a war comrade of General Logan, was made president of the Memorial Association, and men of national prominence from all sections of the United States sent in their names to be enrolled as subscribers and members.

Addresses were delivered today by United States Senators Hamilton Lewis and L. Y. Sherman, Governor Dene of Illinois, former Speaker in Congress Joseph G. Cannon of Danville, Ill. Brief remarks were made by Mrs. Mary Logan, widow of the famous civil war general, of Washington, D. C. Several New York artists have offered to design the monument. The memorial hall will be made the receptacle of records, uniforms and other war relics.

DON'T BE MISLED

Rushville Citizens Should Read and Heed This Advice.

Kidney trouble is dangerous and often fatal.

Don't experiment with something new and untried.

Use a tested kidney remedy.

Begin with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Used in kidney troubles 50 years. Recommended here and everywhere.

A Rushville citizen's statement forms convincing proof.

It's local testimony—it can be investigated.

John Singer, 201 S. Pearl street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I suffered from backache, especially at night and when I got up in the morning I was lame. I tired easily and headaches and dizzy spells bothered me. The kidney secretions contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills greatly benefited me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Singer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GIVEN OUT IN WASHINGTON

Shows up Purpose of Tom Taggart

to Spread News That Progressive Party Will be Second

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—On his return to Indianapolis today James P. Goodrich, Indiana member of the Republican national committee, issued a statement in reply to an interview given out recently at Washington by Thomas Taggart, Indiana Democratic national committeeman in which he declared that the Progressive movement in Indiana is growing. Mr. Goodrich's statement follows:

Mr. Taggart, member of the Democratic National Committee from Indiana, on Tuesday of this week gave out an interview in Washington in which he stated that the "Progressive party is steadily growing in strength in Indiana and the candidates of that party, and not the Republicans, will run second in the coming election."

The fact that the Democratic national committeeman from Indiana made that statement is the surest evidence that it is not true and that Mr. Taggart is, with his usual astuteness, only trying to throw dust in the eyes of the voters who desire above all things to accomplish the defeat of the Democratic party in state and nation.

The return of Republicans who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago has been steadily increasing as they are brought to a realization of the real situation. Thousands of them came back in the municipal elections last fall. Every state and municipal election, every primary wherever held, and every registration has been but the story of the increasing purpose of Republicans to again unite under the banner of the Republican party.

The action of the Republican national committee in changing the rules and basis of representation to meet the objection of the Progressives helped this movement. The reorganization of the state committee and the selection of Mr. Hays as chairman was another element in its favor and the platform adopted by the Republican State convention and the splendid candidates nominated encouraged the return of Republicans to the active support of the party. This has been confined to no county or any particular section of the state, but has been state wide and not a single convention, or party conference, has been held anywhere that has not been attended by large numbers of those who supported the Progressive party two years ago.

The progressive party organ, The Indianapolis Star, does not claim any accessions from the Republican party, other than those who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago. It does claim that many former Democrats, who are dissatisfied with the present tariff law, the multiplication of offices, and the increase of taxes, will vote the Progressive ticket. We know many thousands of Democrats and Republicans who voted for Wilson will vote the Republican ticket this year and no one knows this better than Tom Taggart himself. No one knows better than he that the real, the dangerous opponent of his party in Indiana is the Republican, not the Progressive party. What better service can he render his party than to attempt to strengthen the Progressive party which he knows is not his real opponent? Every vote for the Progressive ticket is at least one-half vote nearer victory for the Democrats.

As we study the history of American politics we find the sure and unfailing indication of the decadence of a political organization is praise from the party in power—or from the chief opponent of that party. It was so with the Greenback party; it was true of the Populist party; of the Gold Democratic party and now that the Progressive party has served its purpose and is fast going its way history is again repeating itself and one of the chief boosters of the Progressive party is found in the genial boss of the Democratic party—Mr. Taggart of French Lick.

That the Democratic organization has sent word to faithful Democrats all over the state to attend Bull Moose meetings cannot be doubted, and one has but to attend any Public meeting of progressives to convince himself of this fact.

Their close co-operation in the last city election in Indianapolis indicates a thorough understanding and the joint indictment by a Democratic court of many Bull Moose and Democratic election officers for falsifying election returns in favor of the Joe Bell machine indicates that they will stop at nothing to carry out this understanding and encompass the defeat of the Republican party.

The rank and file of those who voted the Progressive ticket are honest, sincere men, who desire above all things the restoration of a protective tariff, an end to the riot of extravagance and high taxes and the defeat of the Democratic party.

Our appeal in this campaign is to them and we urge them to beware of the "Greeks bearing gifts." Read carefully the signs of the times spread all over our state and nation indicating the rising tide of Republicanism, and give heed to the Patriotic appeal of more than one hundred representative men from all over the state who voted the Progressive ticket two years ago and met at the Severin Hotel Thursday for the purpose of perfecting plans to insure the election of the Republican ticket, rather than to the sage of French Lick and Boss of the Democratic Party."

Neighbors Come to Rescue of Mrs.

Clarence Carney When Fire

Breaks Out Sunday Night.

BURNED ON HANDS AND FACE

While her husband was away last night, Mrs. Clarence Carney, living southeast of the city, was burned about the hands and slightly on the face when fire started from a gasoline stove in the kitchen burned the kitchen down, but was kept from spreading into the other part of the house. Mr. Carney was in Rushville because of the illness of his father, who died Sunday.

Mrs. Carney was alone with her little daughter when the kitchen caught fire. She immediately telephones the home of Kenneth Kelson, a neighbor, and then tried to extinguish the flames herself. She was burned while trying to stop the spread of the fire. Mr. Kelson was not at home, but his son responded and soon other neighbors came to Mrs. Carney's aid. Through their efforts the fire was confined to the kitchen. The loss was small and is covered by insurance. The fire was discovered about eight-thirty o'clock.

BASE ON BALLS PROVED FATAL

Pass to Maxwell in Sixth Inning
Was Turning Point and Arcadians Lose 4 to 0.

GAME WAS PITCHERS' BATTLE

Rushville Played Great Ball But Work of Al Werner Was Too Much—Heller Was Unsteady.

(By Doc Riner.)

An error in judgment on the part of Jimmy Barton, captain of the Rushville team, who ordered Heller to walk Maxwell in the sixth inning, proved the turning point of one of the best ball games ever played on the Connersville field. The first two runs of the total of four for Connersville were scored. The Arcadians dropped the game 4 to 0, the fans a little money, but the team is not downhearted, and neither are the fans.

The game was a thriller from start to finish. Both teams played air tight ball and the break did not come until the sixth inning. This was the fatal inning for the Arcadians. After traveling six innings at top speed it seemed a shame that the fatal base on balls should have been issued but it was baseball and the break came just right for Connersville.

With two men out in the last of the sixth and with Ruchstuhl on third, Cap. Barton ordered Heller to walk Maxwell. Heller followed instructions to the letter. Maxwell stole second and then Heismann lifted a fly to left field and both men scored. Charles Todd in left field must shoulder some of the blame for the defeat. It was either a case of taking a desperate chance day or let it fall safe. Todd, from all appearances did not make a very hard effort to capture the ball. Heismann was caught at second but the damage was done.

This is not said in an effort to detract from the playing of Todd but it was a case of lose or win and a desperate chance on catching that hit would surely have been in order. From events that followed it seems that Barton made a mistake in ordering Maxwell walked for the next time up he struck out. But Barton thought he was playing it for the best and as Maxwell is the heavy hitter of the Connersville team it looked like good baseball.

For six innings the game was as good a one as anyone would wish to see. Both teams fought for every inch of ground and it was a pitchers' battle between Heller and Al Werner. Werner finally got a shade the better of the argument. The game was closer than the score indicates and Connersville was battled to a stand still. Heller was a little unsteady at times while Werner seemed to get better the farther he went.

The heavy hitting end of the Rushville batting order could do nothing with Werner and went hitless. The hits were easily counted. Bob Goodfellow got two of the three hits and Barton the other. For Connersville Heismann got two and Werner two. Two of the four hits came in the last time Connersville was at bat. For six innings it was one, two three. Rushville got a man as far as third in the fourth and it looked as though the team would break into the run column any time. The Arcadians infield played great ball and in the last of the fourth a sensational double play brought the fans to their feet and stopped the rush of the Connersville team. Quieser drew a pass and Maxwell hit to Hasselback. Quieser was on second before Hasselback could recover the ball but he caught Maxwell at first. Quieser went on to third and was caught in the other half of a lightning double play.

Werner had it on the Arcadians wrecking crew and his work was by far the best that the Arcadians have been up against. Badel, Long and Sandman the sluggers for the Rushville crew could do nothing with Werner and the Connersville team played ball all the way. Connersville's other two runs came in the eighth. Werner led off with a hit and took second on Runyan's sacrifice. Ruchstuhl was safe on Todd's error and Werner scored. Heismann singled to right field and Ruchstuhl scored. Kiefel ended the fireworks by flying out to Todd.

The game was a battle and even if Rushville did lose it was no disgrace as the Arcadians made Connersville fight until the finish. The teams play here in two weeks and the worn may turn. Newcastle is next.

The Newcastle Hoosiers will be the attraction here next Sunday and Manager Davidson's crew believes they will take the Newcastle team into camp. In the past two years Rushville has won but one game from Newcastle and the fans are anxious for a win.

The game at Connersville yesterday showed that the team can play ball and up until the sixth had an equal chance with Connersville. The break is always to come and the fans while naturally disappointed are looking forward to a second meeting of the two teams.

A crowd of 200 fans from this city made the trip with the team, and were in evidence all the time. The fans sure went crazy over the fast double play Hasselback, Badel and Long pulled off. It was a nifty piece of work.

The two teams are about equally matched and the game was sure a nice one to watch. The fans surely have no kick on that kind of ball, and they should play to a large crowd here in two weeks.

Quieser, formerly of the old Arcadians team, made the only error charged to Connersville. Quieser heaved the ball over the first base.

With this game out of the way the cry is take Newcastle.

ASSEMBLY START VERY AUSPICIOUS

anxious for another entertainment like it. Gillilan can furnish it.

The prelude numbers Sunday were immensely popular with the two large audiences. Especially were Miss Leona Thomas, violinist, of Arlington and Ross Fargo, former Rushville boy accorded a resounding ovation. Even before these artists had presented their numbers, they were applauded liberally. Mr. Fargo sang two favorites, "A Perfect Day," and "I Hear You Calling Me," in the afternoon. Mr. Fargo's appearance each time won him merited applause. Merle Maupin was accompanist for him, with the exception of his last number at night, for which he played his own accompaniment.

Miss Thomas, although a mere slip of a girl of fifteen years, performed far beyond the expectations of her most ardent admirers who see for her a great future as an artistic violinist. She won for herself more insistent applause at night because then she seemed to put more of herself into her work. Every person in the audience was proud of their own Miss Thomas, who really made her debut. Miss Thomas's sister played her accompaniments.

Miss Helen Axe Brown of Valparaiso shared the admiration of the audience with Miss Thomas and Mr. Fargo. In the afternoon she sang "My Redeemer and My Lord," "Ave Marie" and "That Sweet Story of Old" with much feeling and expression. Whether she was so much better or whether the audience was more appreciative at night, it is nevertheless the fact that she more was heartily applauded in the evening. She sang several carefully selected songs, some of which offered ability as a dramatic soprano. her ample opportunity to display her

It may have been because it was a popular lecture but at night Dr. Willett held the people who crowded the Coliseum spellbound throughout an hour and a half with the lecture, "The Spirit of Youth." He declared that every child had the right to be born. He lamented the fact that there were too many childless homes. In fact, he said it could not be called home without children.

Furthermore, Dr. Willett continued, every child has the right to be well born. You can not always depend on ancestry, he said, but I will venture to say that the child with four or five stout, honest generations back of it has the advantage of the child with vicious ancestry.

In the third place, the lecturer contended every child has the right to be an environment which gives to him the chance of growing strong mentally. The child also has the right to a body worthy of the name of physical strength, he said. We have read much, Dr. Willett recalled, of our ancestors who lived to such old age, but the man of fifty today has seen more of life than Methusalem did in his quiet life of 900 years here on earth.

"We are interested in the cleanliness of the child today," continued Dr. Willett. "No boy wants to wash it's true. He is willing to compromise with civilization by washing his hands because he believes his face will go another day. We oftentimes see the marks of civilization up around the neck some place. But we are beginning to realize that the child should be kept clean."

He said the spirit of youth is the spirit of adventure and imagination. Of course, he added, the child does not lie because it does not mean to. We grow up, he said, and lose our birthright, because the child lives in a dream world that exists only for the child. Dr. Willett advised parents that the best way to correct children who are prone to exagger-

ate is by illustration. Show them by appealing stories the wrong of falsehood.

"There are many things American boys and girls might learn," Dr. Willett said. "One of these is reverence. The youths of today are not top-sided with reverence. I am reminded of the foreigner who once said, after visiting America, that the time would soon arrive when American parents would be sent to bed for answering back. I wonder just how true that is. But it is not so much that our children are irreverent, but we have not taken the time to teach them some of the nobilities of life."

And in it the child should learn Dr. Willett said the right ordered child wants all the school can give, thoroughness, because that is the demand of the age, he said. The spirit of youth needs mastery of the subject at hand, he said, and the spirit of youth has to learn this.

Although this is an age of facts, fearlessness and conveniences, first and foremost, it is an age of youth, the speaker said. "We used to think," he added, "that they should be kept out of hearing until they had reached an age of discretion, if they ever did, but now we are building out lives around the child. We are putting the child under the microscope like any other bug."

In closing Dr. Willett pleaded for a fair chance for the child. He urged on every parent that he open the mysteries of life and death to his boy early in life before lips not as clean as his had told it. The same applies to the girl, he said.

In the afternoon Dr. Willett, speaking on "The Man of Nazareth," said that God spoke to His people in terms of flesh and blood. He has always spoken through men and women, Dr. Willett said, and he cited Moses, Samuel, Amos, Isaiah, Elijah and Jeremiah as examples. God has been speaking to humanity through all history, the speaker declared, but still the world waited until the days when the Man of Nazareth came. Paul affirms that He came in the fullness of time, and Dr. Willett said Paul meant the nick of time, later than which it would have been too late and earlier than which it would have been too early. All things were set on the world's stage, he said.

HURTY HAS PLAN FOR PREVENTION

Would Have Law Passed Establishing An "All Time" Health Officer in Every County

TO APPLY GOSPEL OF HYGIENE

He Would be on Job all Time and Would Look After Sanitary Conditions in County

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner, today gave the United Press his plan for the prevention of disease in Indiana. He advocated the passage of a law establishing an "all time" competent health officer of every county, to be properly employed and properly paid, whose duties should include the visiting of schools, the homes, the courts and the jails, the slums and the poor houses practically applying the gospel of hygiene. Dr. Hurty said he would advocate a bill embodying this before the next legislature. He wrote the following for the United Press.

BY DR. J. N. HURTY,
(State Health Commissioner)

Preventable diseases are obviously a disgrace. Their presence mean violation of nature's laws of health. Man was not made to mourn, but he certainly does mourn and suffer from his own asininity, and rightly too. People are getting exactly what is coming to them when they are sick. They fully deserve every bit of sickness they have. The man who soaks up liquor and has delirium tremens is reaping what he sowed. The young man who visits the scarlet woman and rots with disease reaps what he has sown. The community which refuses to take care of all its sewage all of the time in a sanitary way, and in consequence has an epidemic of typhoid, reaps what it has sown.

Nature is pitiless, her laws are inexorable. Plague and disaster are of our own making.

Hygiene can prevent all plagues. She knows how to prevent consumption, pneumonia and influenza. She knows how to ward off diphtheria, typhoid, and scarlet fever. She knows how to stop the onward march of crime, insanity and idioey. She knows how to secure "jooned health" with its many blessings. And when the business man, who runs things, see the good business of employing hygiene to better business.

Hygiene is a patient and willing ox that must be yoked to the task of producing more health, and this is the way to do it.

Let a law be passed establishing an "all time" competent health officer in every county. Let him be paid. Then let every one co-operate with him in securing the many blessings of health. He would visit the schools, the homes of the people, the courts and the jails, the slums and the poor houses, everywhere preaching and practically applying the gospel of hygiene.

He would be all the time on the job and finally would secure every where pure clean food, pure clean air, pure clean water, sanitary streets and alleys, sanitary markets, sanitary disposal and sewage, simpler living, avoidance of alcohol, avoidance of drugs and medicine, avoidance of all excesses, playgrounds for the children, public baths, wholesome public amusements under wholesome surroundings. In a word, with competent sanitation to lead, to be the hygienic pivot of every county, we gradually would put away all present irrational methods of living, and reap abundant health, which is the only wealth.

SIXTY ENROLLED AT INSTITUTE

Annual Meeting of Rush County Teachers Opens With Good Attendance This Morning.

THREE LECTURES ARE HEARD

Dr. Arnold B. Hall of University of Wisconsin Discusses Development of Social Sciences.

At the close of the first session of the Rush county teachers' institute in the court house assembly room at noon today, sixty teachers were enrolled. A much larger enrollment is expected by tomorrow. Three lectures were delivered this morning, one by Dr. Wirt Lowther of Columbus and two by Dr. Arnold B. Hall, professor of history in the University of Wisconsin. They will be the regular lectures each morning this week. The institute will continue until Friday.

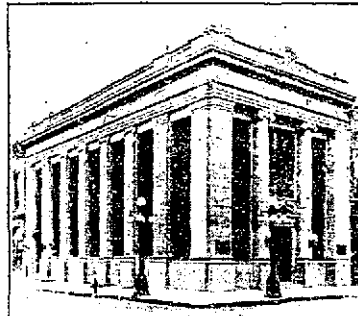

Dr. Hall discussed the development of the social sciences this morning. He said the prime purpose of the school was to develop children for citizenship. He declared it was difficult for the teacher because of their inability to educate the children as they come. Dr. Hall said that the problem of citizenship was largely pedagogical. He declared the things that determine the real life are heredity, formal education and environment.

Dr. Hall's second lecture was really a continuation of the first. He advised the teachers to direct the activity of the child rather than attempt to suppress it. Dr. Hall was advertised to lecture on history, but he did not devote much time to that subject this morning. He declared the real purpose of teaching history is to enable the pupil to reach certain phenomena. He urged that teachers have pupils see things as they really are and do away with false ideals.

Dr. Lowther said that literature should be intellectual, ethical and aesthetic. He declared it to be the duty of the teacher to inspire the pupil to read the best literature. He said the opportunity lies with the teacher to direct the reading of the pupils by giving them the best books.

Miss Freda C. Flint of this city is acting as secretary of the institute. County Superintendent C. M. George presides. D. O. Alter of Richmond led the devotional exercises this morning and A. M. Taylor, clerk of the circuit court, led the music.

The Busy Bees defeated the Jersey City Stars yesterday 18 to 15. The game was tied in the ninth and with two men on bases Dye broke up the game with a home run. The battery for the Busy Bee was Wallace and Goodwin and for the Jersey City team, Stark and Pearsey.

MR. RAT LOVES RAT PASTE

"VERMIN EXTERMINATOR"

They crave it, but it is the last they ever eat. It kills the rodent and chemically cremates the body, absolutely causing no smell. Ask your neighbor what it has done for him.

HOW ABOUT IT?

We have a good full stock of Girls' Dresses in fast color wash materials. Gingham in plain colors, stripes and checks, Rippiettes, Galateas, Linens and Pereaes, sizes 2 to 6 years. They are just as pretty as can be, nicely made and neatly trimmed, fit perfectly and with it all the prices are very, very low. Prices have been reduced so low you can not afford to buy the material and make them yourself when you can buy them so cheap.
